Create a space where you can relax, and breathe and enjoy EveryDay Worship.

Friday

Call to Worship

I awaken this day ready to worship the risen Lord, ready to sing praise to the one in whom I seek refuge.
The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup.
I will keep the Lord always before me.
My heart is glad, my soul rejoices.
I am secure.

Personal Reflection

Prayer

It's starting.....the excitement of Easter morning, the joy of that day is starting to fade. The lilies don't look or smell fresh, the tulips are drooping, I've eaten too many chocolate Easter eggs. It doesn't feel like Easter anymore! Lord, how can I stop the dread and worry from creeping back into my life? I am vulnerable and afraid – maybe the same had feelings the disciples the week after..... I know they overcame their doubt and fear. They became witnesses to your life and your love. They became secure in their conviction that you are the risen Lord. I want to be secure. I want to witness to your love. I want to serve you. Help me, Lord. Amen.

Benediction

The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup.
In the Lord I find fullness of joy.
I go forth ready to serve.
I am secure.
