

EveryDay Worship

Create a space where you can relax, and breathe and enjoy EveryDay Worship.

Thursday

Call to Worship*

God is with us, right here and now.
We open our lives to our creator.
God cares for us and gives us glory.
We open our hearts to our creator.
God appoints us keepers of the earth.
We dedicate ourselves to our creator.

Music

Contemporary

God Who Still Moves Mountains Corey Voss

<https://youtu.be/b3xsn6db2il>

Traditional

How Great Thou Art arr. Dan Forrest

<https://youtu.be/pNyboCuUnGI>

Scripture Reading

Psalm 8

<https://classic.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Psalm+8&version=NRSV>

2 Timothy 1:8-12

<https://classic.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=2+Timothy+1%3A8-12&version=NRSV>

Personal Reflection

Prayer

Mighty and loving God – how great thou art! That was my mother’s favorite hymn. I’ve sung it all my life, and believed! Why am I struggling to believe it now? I guess it’s because some days I don’t know where to turn, what to believe, who to trust. I never imagined being quarantined, wearing a mask, not being able to hug friends and family, not sitting in the sanctuary for worship. I want the God of that hymn to fix everything, right now! Forgive me God for wanting things as they were and not seeing the many ways the past was broken. Forgive me for wanting all the meat I can buy, all the hand sanitizer, anything I want without restrictions and without thinking of the needs of others. Sometimes my days seem to be all about me and the control I’ve lost, the items I can’t have. I need the wind of the spirit to rush over me, to change me. Great and mighty God capture the imaginations of my heart and the work of my hands. Help me throw off the burden of self-indulgence. Help me put my trust in you, and let me sing with conviction – How Great Thou Art! Amen.

Benediction

Today I will sing about the mighty acts and wonderful love of God.
Today I will trust in God, and serve other’s in God’s name. Amen.