Call to Worship*

When hatred and division separate us, God's love binds us together.

When quarrels separate us from one another, Christ's light shows us the way to reconciliation.

When we feel excluded and left out, the Spirit's peace eases our pain.

When all hope of fellowship seems lost, God's grace restores our hope.

Let us worship God, who makes us one.

Personal Reflection

Prayer

Loving, patient God, it is so much easier to cling fiercely to my beliefs than to listen, even for a moment, to those who hold a different view. I want to be that person that can listen to and appreciate others. Help me open my heart, O God, to all who are different from me. Help me see that all are your children. Give me the courage to risk reaching out to others so that I can know the peace and harmony with my brothers and sisters. During this time of high anxiety, and the brutal realities of this world help me look beyond differences. Help us all live together in unity. Amen.

Benediction*

The God of love has knit us together in unity.

The God of love sends us forth to heal our divisions.

The God of hope sends us forth together.

The God of peace sends us forth to bring the world home.
