Call to Worship* (based on Psalm 125)

Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved (v1).

In good times and in bad times, we trust in the Lord our God.

As the mountains surround Jerusalem, God's people are surrounded, from this time on and for evermore (v2).

We are surrounded by God's goodness and mercy; we are surrounded by God's love and peace.

The Lord does good to those who are upright in heart and do good (v5).

We believe that we will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

We worship the Lord who surrounds us, does good to us, and invites us to trust.

Personal Reflection

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we come before you today knowing that we often fall short of your call to love one another. We allow ourselves to be blinded by wealth and power. We ignore those around us who suffer injustice, poverty, and rejection. We tune out the cries of the poor and those on the edges of our communities. Help us to see your great generosity, hear your word of mercy, and feel your great love for all who need your redemptive grace. Strengthen us to reach out in service to those who are in need. May we continue to grow in grace. Amen.

Benediction

We go forth to share God's blessing to the world.

We go forth to in joy to serve! Amen.
