Tuesday

Call to Worship*

Just as God loves us we are to love others.

Just as Christ cares for us we are to care for others.

Just as the Spirit blesses us we are to be a blessing to others.

Let us worship our God of love, caring, and blessing today and everyday.

Personal Reflection

Prayer of Confession

God of Love, I feel loved today as I stay within my warm house and look out at the snow flurries. I feel the love of my family and friends, I feel your love for me. How do those living without warm homes know your love, God? How do those who are hungry and lonely know that you care for them? Help me, Lord, because I know that what I do - how I care and serve those outside in the cold, those hungry and lonely people I encounter- what I do for them is the way they will learn of your love for them. I'm not sure I'm up to the task, God. I want to be that person, but it's just not who I am....or, at least, it's not who I am if I try to do it without your help. Empower me, God. They will know we are Christians by our love. I sing that line, and I know it is easier to sing than to live. Help me live that, loving God. Help me love others. Help me serve others. Help me be a blessing to others. Amen.

Benediction

I go forth today ready to show God's love to others. Amen.
