Wednesday

Call to Worship*

The God who speaks comfort to us calls us now.

The God who addresses us with tenderness meets us right where we are.

The God who guides us with gentleness cares for us right now and always.

We come to prepare a way for the Lord.

We come to ready ourselves for the transformation of our lives.

For the glory of the Lord will be revealed, and all people will see it.

Personal Reflection

Prayer

Sometimes, loving God, I'm not reading for things to be made new. I want to wallow just a bit longer in my sadness, and darkness. I just don't have the energy deal with changing circumstances – even those that might be to my benefit. When I'm at this low point, help me see glimmers of your hope and love. It doesn't have to be a blinding light – just help me find a small crack and a penetrating ray. And when I see that light give me the courage to reach out, to take one small step. Help me prepare a way for you to come into my life, to restore me, to comfort me. Amen.

Benediction*

May my life reflect hope as I await the coming of God,

A God that will bring love, faithfulness, and peace.

A God that will make all things new.
