Call to Worship*

In the midst of a world where people hunger and thirst . . .
come worship a God who feeds the hungry.

In the midst of a world where people are abused and oppressed . . .
come worship a God who calls for compassion and justice.

In the midst of a world filled with wars and rumor of war . . .
come worship a God who desires nothing less than peace for the world.

In the midst of a world of spiritual emptiness . . .
come worship a God who gives life meaning.

Come worship a God whose grace and love know no end.

Personal Reflection

Prayer

God, you have given all peoples one common origin. It is your will that they be gathered together as one family in yourself. Fill the hearts of mankind with the fire of your love and with the desire to ensure justice for all. By sharing the good things you give us, may we secure an equality for all our brothers and sisters throughout the world. May there be an end to division, strife and war. May there be a dawning of a truly human society built on love and peace. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord.

Benediction

Now, go forth with renewed inspiration to do the work of God. Seek good, not evil, love goodness, and establish justice. This the greatest offering we can make; letting justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever flowing stream. Go in peace, with love for our neighbors.
