Personal Reflection

Prayer

Creating God, with a spirit of renewed hope I face this day. As I look out, even without the warming presence of the sun, your hand is in all that I see. I feel your presence, your power, your spirit moving and working within me. Thank you for these moments. My awareness is not always so keen. Sometimes I wake with dread and anxiety and yet, if I allow my mind to still, your light and love breaks through, sometimes it sneaks in. Then I know that you can raise me up out of my darkness, in my weakness you can lift me up and help me soar. Then I know that you are my rock. Thank you for not forgetting me. Amen.

Benediction

The creator God, who brought us into being calls us and empowers us to proclaim God’s love to the world. Let’s answer God’s call and share God’s love. Amen.
