Tuesday

Call to Worship*

No matter how we feel this morning, God is with us.

If we are grieving, God is there and calls us blessed.

When we yearn to abandon our sinful ways and follow God and God's righteousness, God is there and calls us blessed.

Help us this day to worship you, O God,

May we speak your truth from grateful hearts. Amen.

Personal Reflection

Prayer

Holy One, we often feel beaten down by the world. Numbed by our sorrow and grief, we seek blessings for ourselves rather than for those you call us to serve. Wounded by careless words, we lash out in our suffering and hurt the very ones we love. Weary of seeming weak and foolish, we forsake humility and gentleness and seek approval from those who need us to be peacemakers and bridge builders. Bless us, that we might be a blessing for others. Fill us with a hunger and a thirst for righteousness, that we may be pure in heart, merciful, kind, and just. Amen.

Benediction

We go forth to seek justice, to practice kindness, to share mercy.

We go forth knowing the God is with us, Christ's presence is within us, and the Holy Spirit is guiding us. Amen.
