Call to Worship*

The Spirit of God calls to us today.

The Lord brings us to this place, though our bones are tired.

Can these dry bones live?

Yes! The Breath of God will revive us! The Word of God will awaken us!

Today, we come together to experience new life.

Let us give thanks to the Wild, Life-Giving Spirit of God!

Personal Reflection

Prayer

Breath of Life, can these bones live? Holy God, valleys of dry bones confront us, threatening to separate us from you. Each day, our newspapers highlight the numerous and extensive dry-bone-valleys in our world. We sometimes think that the valley of dry bones before us is the most hopeless, dry valley there has ever been. Save us from despair and worthless pursuits. Hearing your word today, we remember the death valleys of our forebears in the faith. Many have gone before us. Your spirit breathed life and love into them when they thought they could not go on. Breathe on us, today. Restore our hope and trust in you and your ever-present spirit. Abide with us as we journey through this Lenten season, and as we journey through life. Assure us that these bones can live! Amen.

Benediction

I will go forth today knowing that as I travel on this journey God is with me, knowing that the dry bones can live! Amen.
