Monday

Call to Worship

The sun rises on a different kind of Monday,
the Monday after the parade and the palms.
Another Monday of uncertainty,
but hope is in the air, the sun did rise, and the birds are singing, and it is spring,
God will lead us through this week as in week's past.
On this different kind of Monday, we worship our God who loves us and leads us.

Personal Reflection

Prayer

Loving God, we know you have been with us and are with us still. A year ago, we were on a home-bound journey into a world of Zoom meetings and online worship. Today our Lenten journey has many of us vaccinated and many more waiting. It is a different journey, but you have been the constant. We give thanks for your presence with us through a dark time, and for leading us now into this time of hope and renewal. Help us thank you by sharing your love with others who are struggling. Give us the courage to show kindness and care when and where we can. As we face this week, help us to remember your overwhelming, never-ending love for us in all situations. Amen.

Benediction*

On this Monday after the parade, we remember that:
on the back of a donkey, Jesus came to bless us.
With a love that did not count the cost, Jesus came to heal us.
From hopelessness and despair, Jesus came to free us.
With the power of the Holy Spirit, Jesus came to save us. Amen.
