Call to Worship

In the midst of our failures, we stand in God's grace.

In the midst of our struggles, we boast in our hope through Christ.

In the midst of our suffering, we claim the endurance given by the Holy Spirit.

In every part of our lives, the love of our Divine Creator has been poured into our hearts.

Let us be open to this love as we worship today.

Personal Reflection

Prayer*

Hear this prayer, O God, as I come to you a little weary, tired and worn. Help me as I confess that sometimes I wonder if you do love me, or if I am worthy of your love, and then I remember that children's hymn I learned in Sunday School ...Jesus loves me, this I know.... I know because today I had a Zoom gathering, just to chat and catch up. I saw faces smiling at me and saying my name. I shared stories with people who were interested in what was happening with me, and I was interested in their lives and stories. I know God loves the church, this church that is scattered now but still does God's work in the world, still helps feed those who hunger, still works for justice for those who are homeless, still finds ways to stay connected in the midst of great challenge and uncertainty. I know God loves the world because even in the midst of a pandemic there are so many examples around the world of God's children loving and caring for each other. Thank you for your love, O God. Amen.

Benediction*

I go to face this day confident in God's love for me, the church, and the world. I go ready to share that love!
